

Pre-Publication Checklist

1. Rights and Permissions

- ✓ I know the copyright status of each item, including for any items with overlapping copyright (eg. Photographs that identify a person)
- ✓ Where copyright status is unknown, I have marked this field as “unknown” and not left it blank
- ✓ I have checked any restrictions on public reuse of items in my collection

Omeka-S fields (DC)	Omeka-S fields (Schema)	Example
Creator	Creator	S. Mithridites
Rights	Licence	Public Domain
Rights holder	Copyright holder	Library of Congress

2. Accessibility

- ✓ Media includes meaningful alt text that describes what a sighted reader would want to know for research purposes
- ✓ Page display choices meet basic legibility standards
- ✓ Embedded multi-media includes transcripts

Omeka-S attributes		Example
Media → Advanced tab	Alt text	Portrait photograph of a woman, looking left
Pages	Page template/design	Dark text on a light background, clear headings and a readable font size
Media item	Transcription not built in to Omeka-S, must be in original media item	Oral history MP3 with a PDF transcript attached as a second media file

3. Identifiers and Linked Data

- ✓ Each item has a stable, unique identifier
- ✓ Each points to an external authority link
- ✓ Controlled identifiers (URIs) are used to identify key fields

Omeka-S fields (DC)	Omeka-S fields (Schema)	Example
Identifier	Identifier	PH-1901-042
URI	URL	https://example.org/s/my-collection/item/42
Relation	sameAs	https://id.loc.gov/authorities/names/n50006412

4. Metadata Quality

- ✓ All essential fields are complete
- ✓ Dates and names follow a consistent format

Omeka-S fields (DC)	Omeka-S fields (Schema)	Example
Essential fields: title, description, creator, rights, rights holder, identifier, relation	Essential fields: title, description, creator, licence, copyright holder, identifier, sameAs	Dates as YYYY-MM-DD (1847-03-12); names as Surname, Given name (Opie, Amelia)

5. Research collection as dataset

- ✓ I have checked the licences that apply to my own metadata and media objects
- ✓ Citations for the items and collection are correct
- ✓ Each page includes site version or last updated information